NUMB. 441

441.

Yesterday arrived the Mail due from Holland.

LETTERS from Constantinople by the Way of Vienna say, that the Deputies who came thither from the Nation of the Usbecks, to divert the Grand Signior from a Peace with the new Sophy of Persia, are gone away in great Dudgeon; that the Presents which the Sophy had sent to the Grand Signior, are already arrived on the Turkish Frontier; and that the Porte has issued Orders to their Generals and Governors, to restore the Commerce which had been interrupted during the War between the Turks and Persians. Some Advices from Constantinople by the same Canal say, that the Treaty between the Turks and Russians, also begins to take a favourable Turn, thro' the Mediation of the Ministers of the Maritime Powers; that the Baron de Dahlman has had an Audience of the Grand Signior in Quality of the Emperor's Ambassador; and that he is to act in Conjunction with the Ministers of the Maritime Powers for the same End; and they add, that he has theretofore obtain'd Leave to go to the Grand Vizier's Army, in order there to concert the necessary Measures for procuring the said Peace, together with that General and the Ministers aforesaid.

Those by the Way of Venice say, that the Persian Ambassador is gone Home with magnificent Presents from the Porte, both for his Master and himself, as well as fresh Assurances, that the Grand Signior will give his Master all the necessary Succours to support him on the Persian Throne. Mean time Kouli Kan's Usurpation of the Dignity of Sophy, has given such Disgust to the neighbouring Powers, that it does not promise them any great Success. He is said to be on Par with the great Men of the Country, and seem'd to act from no other Motive but Honour, and to restore the Kingdom of Persia with its ancient Limits to the Prince the Successor, every thing promis'd his Designs; but since his Ambition has taken the Mask off his Policy, Obstacles are arisen which he will have much ado to surmount. The Great Mogul refuses to acknowledge him for Sophy, unless he yields two Provinces to him in Sovereignty, which border upon his Dominions. The Kan of Great Tartary declaims loudly against the Usurpation of the Throne of Persia, and seems resolv'd to make War against Thomas, in order to force him to resign the Crown to the Prince to whom it of Right belongs; and this Kan is the more formidable, because he is extremely powerful: For he includes among his Subjects the Nation of the Usbecks, who are very populous, and inhabit the ancient Bactriana. The Kan of Great Tartary has already sent Orders to this Nation, to be ready for a March upon the first Notice: These Dispositions keep up the Spirit of the Malecontent Nobility of Persia, and encourage the inhabitants of some of its Provinces, in their Refusal to acknowledge Kouli Kan for their Sovereign; and 'tis natural enough to Conjecture, that when he sees what Powers he was like to have upon his back at Home, he was the more in Haste to clap up a separate Peace with the Turks, exclusive of his Ally the Czarina.

The Russian Court being now convinc'd, that the overtures made by the Porte for an Accommodation with the Czarina, was only a Copy of their Countenance to gain Time; they have given Orders to make the necessary Provisions for bringing an Army into the Field next Year of 200,000 Men, whereof a great Body is to be posted in the Ukraine, and the rest to be employ'd against the Turks. 'Tis observ'd, that the Persian Ambassador appears no longer at that Court, since the Arrival of the News that Kouli Kan had made his Peace with the Porte, tho' he had formally engaged to do nothing of that Kind, in Concurrence with the Russian Empire.

They write from Vienna, that on the 3d Instant the ratifications of the Preliminaries by which France was to have immediate Possession of Lorain, were exchanged there on the Part of the Empire, and that the Convention was sent away the same Day by an Express to Paris, for the Ratification of the French Court.

We find no Account in the Advices from Italy, that confirms the Elopement of Baron Theodore from the Isle of Corsica; but Letters from thence by the Way of Leghorn say, that the Deputies sent from the Genoese Republick to treat with the Malecontents for an Accommodation have been well received, and that the latter seem inclin'd to treat with them independently and exclusive of the said Theodore: Some Advices say, that they are actually enter'd into a Negotiation.

They continue at Turin, to make great Preparations for the speedy Marriage of the King of Sardinia, but to whom is not yet publicly known: Mean time they tell us, that sumptuous Litters are order'd for passing the Mountains, and 'tis generally reported, it will be the Princess Elizabeth Theresa of Lorain.

The Pope persists in his Resolution, not to grant the Investiture of the Dominions of the King of the Two Siciles, till proper Satisfaction is given for the Disturbances in the Ecclesiastical State, on Account of the Men impress'd there for the Service of the Spanish and Neapolitan Troops.

They write from Leghorn, that the Masters of the Transports, freighted there for the Service of Spain, press the Duke de Montemar very much to be dismiss'd, and offer to give up Part of the Arrears due to them; but the Duke has not thought fit to accept their Offers, which makes it conjectur'd, that Tuscany will be evacuated sooner than was expected; it being certain, that the Duke de Montemar has received final Orders from the King of Spain for that Purpose, which he is to execute as soon as the reciprocal Acts of Cession are exchange'd between the Emperor, the King of Spain, and the King of the Two Sicilies. Mean time 'tis said, there are so many ships at anchor in the Port of Leghorn, that they are not sufficient to transport the Spaniards from Tuscany, if they were to receive sudden Orders for their Departure; and they will not easily find others, the Mariners being not fond to be out at Sea in this Season. They add from Leghorn, that the Duke de Montemar is to be Vice Roy and Captain General of the Principality of Catalonia; and they give out there, that Cardinal Alberoni is to be recalled to the Court of Spain, in order to be employ'd again in the Ministry.

There's a very odd Account from Rome, that the Government of Naples has begun to put the Name of Philip V. at the Head of several publick Acts, of which some have actually been seen at Rome, such as Orders from the Custom-House at Naples; and that they have Advice from Naples, that a publick Inscription in the Arsenal, set up two Years ago in the Name of the Infante Don Carlos, has been effaced to make room for that of Philip V. his Father.

Mr. Finch, the British Minister, set out last Monday Fortnight from Copenhagen to Stockholm.

The Dutchess of Holstein Ploen, was safely deliver'd of a Prince last Saturday Fortnight.

They pretend to have certain Advice at Berlin, that the Court of France has guaranteed the Succession of Juliers and Berg to the House of Sultzbach.

The Emperor having appointed the King of Great Britain, as Elector of Hanover, to be Commissarial Administrator for accommodating the Affairs of the Principality of East Friseland, his Britannick Majesty has been pleas'd to accept of the said Commission, and subdelegated certain Commissioners to repair to that Country, to confer with the Prince of East Friseland to concert Measures, with others from the States General, for accommodating the Disputes that have subsisted there for several Years. Mean time 'tis said, that his Majesty has signify'd to the States General, that he Hopes they will contribute their utmost to bring this Affair to a happy Issue.

Mr. Trever, the British Minister at the Hague, having lately acquainted the Deputies of Zealand, that their High Mightinesses Answer to the King of Great Britain's Letter in Favour of the Prince of Orange, was not very acceptable, either at London or Hanover; those Deputies have reply'd, That they did not doubt, but his Britannick Majesty had observ'd, upon all Occasions, that their High Mightinesses, and by Consequence the whole Republick, had always great Regard, and paid great Deference to his Majesty's Recommendations; but that the present Case was of such a Nature, that not only the Interest of the Province of Zealand, but that of the whole Republick was expos'd; and that 'twas impossible to comply with his Majesty's Remonstrances on this Head, without doing considerable Prejudice to both.

M. Everard de Harscamp, late Secretary of the Police at Utrecht, and Secretary of the University there, died last Monday Se'nnight, about 61 Years of Age, very much lamented for his affable and friendly Temper, and other good Qualities.

L O N D O N.

We hear from Dumbarton, that upon Saturday the 30th of October, being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Birth-day, Captain Turnbull, the Lieutenant Governor, gave a handsome Entertainment in the Castle; to which were invited the Magistrates of Dumbarton, with several other Gentlemen and Ladies; that when they came into the Castle, his Majesty's, the Queen's, and Royal Family's Healths, were drunk in the richest Wines, under a Discharge of the great Guns; and after Dinner his Majesty's Health, safe Return to Britain, Success to his Councils, Health to his Ministers and Generals, with several other loyal Healths, were drunk under a triple Discharge of the small Arms; after which, Mr. Dunkison of Garshaig, present chief Magistrate, invited the Lieutenant Governor, his Son, and Ensign Dunbar, &c. to the Town House, where, and at the Cross in a very numerous and handsome Company, the foreaid and many other loyal Healths were repeated, the Bells ringing, and other Musick playing all the while; so the Night was concluded with great Mirth and Joy, the Company dancing round a great Bonfire and the Cross, with other cheerful Demonstrations of Joy.

Yesterday the Dukes of Grafton and Devonshire, and several other Persons of Distinction, arrived in Town from Houghton Hall in Norfolk.

Last Sunday William Thormond, Esq; was married to Miss Chambers, one of the Daughters of George Chambers of Hertford, Esq; a very Beautiful young Lady, with a plentiful Fortune.

This Morning their Royal Highnesses the Duke of Cumberland and the Princess Amelia, will take the Diversion of hunting a Hind on Barham Downs.

Yesterday came on before the Honourable Commissioners of Excise, the Trials of William Wharley, Richard Barton, Richard Pulham, Mary Roundhill, Elizabeth Whitcombe, John Rudd, and Elenor Hern, for selling Spirituous Liquors, contrary to the late Act of Parliament, who were all found Guilty, and fined 100 l. each.

Last Monday was held a high Court of Chivalry, at the College of Arms in Doctors Commons, before the Worshipful Dr. Iham, who sat as Judge in the said Court, in the Absence of the Earl of Effingham, Deputy Earl Marshal of England, when Sir Harry Blount's Plea was Learnedly argued by the Doctors of the Civil Law, in relation to his bearing the antient Arms of the Family of Blount; but the Civilians not having Time to go through the same, they adjourn'd to the 15th of December next.

The Jerusalem Chamber in Westminster Abby is hung in Mourning, and this Evening the Corpse of Lieutenant General Groves is to be removed thither from his House in New Bond-street, where he is to lie in State To-morrow and Friday, and that Night to be interred in great funeral Pomp and Solemnity in Westminster Abby.

They write from Chichester, that upon receiving the News of their Graces the Duke and Dutchess of Richmond being safely arrived from Holland, the Companies and Gentlemen of the City met together to drink their Graces Healths, and Prosperity to that Noble Family, while the Populace certify'd their Joy by Bonfires, Illuminations, ringing of Bells, &c. every one being truly sensible of the great Use and Advantage their Graces are to that Place, and the Country round about.

Last

Last Monday died at his House at Wimbleton in Surrey, George Willey, Esq; a Gentleman possessed of an Estate of 2000 l. per Annum.

Last Wednesday Se'nnight the Rev. Mr. Capon, of Low-layton in Essex, went from his House to transact some Business in London, and with an Intent of returning home the same Evening; but has not since been seen or heard of by any of his Friends. He is of a middling Stature, iwarthy Complexion, and had on when he went from Home, a black Cape Coat, a black Callimanco Waistcoat, iron-grey Breeches, and black Stockings, and had two Mourning Rings on his, one a Joint Ring with a Cypher, and this Inscription, Mag. Playmunt ob. 5 May 1733, Aet. 75. the other had Mrs. Thorp on it. As he was never accustomed to lie from Home without the Knowledge of his Family, it is feared some Accident has befallen him. If any Person will give Notice of him, dead or alive, to his Family at Low-layton aforesaid, or to the Printer of this Paper, it will be greatly acknowledged.

On Saturday last appeared in the Exchequer Court, the Rev. Dr. Leybourne, of Stepney, and took the Oaths as Principal of Alban Hall in Oxford, to which he was lately presented by the Right Hon. the Earl of Arran.

We hear that Hon. Major Guise, Lieut. Col. of his Majesty's first Regiment of Foot Guards, will be appointed to succeed the late Lieut. General Groves, as Colonel of the Regiment of Foot at Gibraltar.

Last Week died the Rev. Mr. Willows, Vicar of Meldmeth in the County of Cambridge.

Last Week the Rev. Mr. Bond Spindler, M. A. was inducted into the Rectory of St. Martins, in the City of Oxford, to which he was lately presented to by the Lord Chancellor.

Last Friday Night some Rogues broke into the Shop of Mr. Trotter, a Dealer in Old Cloaths, the Corner of Stanhope Street, near Clare Marker, who stole from thence three Gold Laced Suits of Cloaths, and other Things, to the Value of upwards of 60 l. and made off undiscovered.

The most Fam'd and long Experienced Chymical Drops
For ASTHMA and CONSUMPTIONS.

That have been Sold so many Years, and with such common Success and Benefit to the Publick, by Mr. Parry, and his Predecessors, in Boar's-Head-Court, Fleet-street; but, since Mr. Parry's Decease, are now in London sold only by Mr. Read for 3 s. 6 d. a Vial, at his House in White-Fryars. (N. B. You turn in just by the Swan Tavern in Fleet-street, and it's the great Corner House in White-Fryars; JAMES READ, in great Letters, is wrote over the Door.) But in the Country, by Mr. Brown, Bookseller in Bristol.

They are a most Incomparable and never-failing Medicine for the immediate Relief and perfect Cure of the most confirmed ASTHMA of the longest standing: And all Sorts of CONSUMPTIONS, even when so far advanced, as not to be cured by any other Medicine in the World.

FOR their Virtues vastly exceed any Thing that ever was published, or even known in the whole World, in the Cure of the worst ASTHMA and Consumptions of all Sorts, Coughs, Colds, Catarrhs, &c.

They instantly relieve the Patient in the most suffering Fit of an Asthma, and make a perfect Cure in a very short Time; for they gently open the Breast, and immediately give Liberty of Breathing, without danger of taking Cold; and admirably allay the Tickling, which provokes frequent Coughing, and take off the uneasy Sensation of acrimonious humours, cleanse the small Glands, relax the Fibres, and thereby enlarge the Capacities of the Vessels; thus they regularly and quickly Cure the most obstinate Asthma of the longest standing.

They speedily and to Admiration cure all Sorts of Consumptions, Ulcers of the Lungs, &c. removing all Obstructions of the Breast, and Lungs, Hoarseness, Wheezing, Soreness, Stenosis of Breath, and all the usual Symptoms which attend the Beginnings of a Consumption; and, if taken in time, will infallibly prevent one when seized. They are also exceeding nutritive and strengthening to Persons of weakly Constitutions, and have no other sensible Operation than as mentioned above.

And by Parity of Reasoning this most excellent Remedy in the World for those troublesome spending Coughs, which may severely trouble with Night and Morning; also for the Cough, and Hooping-Cough in Children, having cured Thousands; and are so pleasant, and so few Drops to a Dose, that Children take them with Pleasure, and without any confinement.

In short, these unparallel'd Chymical Drops are the most infallible Remedy that ever was known (therefore they deserve the faint Efforts of any Counterfeiters or Imitators) for the Ailments above-mentioned, and allowed to be so by the most Judicious amongst the Learned in Physick; and confirmed by the largest Experience in private Practice, are therefore most Publick for Common Good.
